Formed Pick of the Week

Symbolon: Knowing the Faith

We've all heard that Christ died for our sins and rose again on Easter, but what does it mean? In this original Augustine Institute production, Dr. Edward Sri opens our eyes to the deeper meaning behind the fundamental mystery of our Christian Faith. To watch for free, visit www.formed.org and log in with Parish code GHGPY3.

LIVING AS STEWARDS

One of the recommended Responsorial Psalms on this glorious Easter Sunday is Psalm 118, including this from verse 24: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad." In truth Easter is all about rejoicing. It is the day of Resurrection which provides hope to all of us.

Throughout our diocese thousands of people are at Mass today who may not normally attend.

Recent studies have shown that as many as 40 percent of those who do not regularly attend may not have been at Mass since Christmas.

That is another reason for us to rejoice and say "Welcome home." We miss you and we love you. Christ's love for us is at the foundation of our celebration today. St. Augustine once wrote, "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." We ask God's blessings on all those who have passed our amazing religion to you. Clearly you do remember your devotion and are here to honor it.

Our Catholic Church considers today to be the holiest day of the year. For us as Catholics this celebrates one of the greatest days in history — when Jesus, the Son of God, defeated death and rose from the grave giving us all hope for eternal life. St. Pope John Paul II may have put it best several years ago when he proclaimed, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song." NEWS, EVENTS & OPPORTUNITIES

The Novena of Divine Mercy & April Chaplet of Divine Mercy

March 30 - April 8, 8am / OLF Church

The novena will be prayed every morning before daily Mass, except on Sunday when prayers will be said at home. Instructions will be provided.

In her diary, St. Faustina wrote that Jesus told her: "On each day of the novena you will bring to My heart a different group of souls and you will immerse them in this ocean of My mercy ... On each day you will beg My Father, on the strength of My passion, for the graces for these souls."

Please note that the Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed at 3pm on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 8, instead of the first Friday of April. Also, members of the Divine Mercy ministry are willing to pray at the bedside of those who are sick or dying. Please call the parish office to make arrangements.

Novena y Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia

La novena se rezará todas las mañanas antes de la misa diaria, excepto los domingos, cuando se puede rezar en casa. Se proporcionarán instrucciones. En su diario, Santa Faustina escribió que Jesús le dijo: "En cada día de la novena llevarás a Mi corazón un grupo diferente de almas y las sumergirás en este océano de Mi misericordia ... Cada día suplicaras a mi Padre, con la fuerza de mi pasión, por las gracias de estas almas". Tenga en cuenta que la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia se rezará a las 3pm el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia el 8 de abril, en lugar del primer viernes de abril. Esta importante fiesta fue designada por San Juan Pablo II a pedido de Jesús a Santa Faustina. Vengan y unan sus voces a otras de todo el mundo que honrarán la misericordia de nuestro Señor en este día. Las confesiones estarán disponibles después de las Misas de la mañana (a la espera de la disponibilidad del Padre Sebastian) y haremos una Consagración al Amor Misericordioso. Además, los miembros del ministerio de la Divina Misericordia están dispuestos a orar junto con personas que estén enfermos en cama o moribundos. Por favor llame a la oficina de la parroquia para hacer arreglos.

Reflexión de la Corresponsabilidad

Uno de los Salmos Responsoriales recomendados en este glorioso Domingo de Pascua es el Salmo 118, que incluye el versículo 24: "Este es el día que hizo el Señor; alegrémonos y regocijense." En verdad, la Pascua se trata de regocijo. Es el día de la Resurrección el que nos brinda esperanza a todos nosotros.

A lo largo de nuestra diócesis, hoy miles de personas están en la misa a las que normalmente no asisten. Estudios recientes han demostrado que hasta el 40 por ciento de los que no asisten regularmente pueden no haber asistido a misa desde Navidad.

Esa es otra razón para que nos regocijemos y le digamos "Bienvenido a casa". Te extrañamos y te amamos. El amor de Cristo por nosotros es el fundamento de nuestra celebración de hoy. Una vez, San Agustín escribió: "Dios nos ama a cada uno de nosotros como si fuéramos solo uno de nosotros".

Pedimos las bendiciones de Dios para todos aquellos que le han transmitido nuestra asombrosa religión. Claramente, sí recuerdas tu devoción y estás aquí para honrarlo.

Nuestra Iglesia Católica considera que hoy es el día más sagrado del año. Para nosotros, como católicos, esto celebra uno de los mejores días de la historia: cuando Jesús, el Hijo de Dios, derrotó a la muerte y resucitó de la tumba, nos dio esperanza para la vida eterna. El Santo Papa, Juan Pablo II, pudo haberlo expresado mejor hace varios años cuando proclamó: "No abandonen la desesperación. Somos el pueblo de Pascua y el aleluya es nuestra canción. Para más reflexiones e información sobre la corresponsabilidad visite <http://www.catholicsteward.com/>
